Collective Bargaining Round at Deutsche Post AG 2020: We have achieved a very good result!

After long and tough negotiations we finally have a new collective agreement!

- 3 percent increase from 1 January 2021
- 2 percent increase from 1 January 2022
- 300 € Corona bonus for employees with a weekly working time (WWT) of more than half the hours of full-time-employed (38.5h)
- 150 € Corona bonus for employees with a WWT of 19.25 hours and less and for trainees, dual students and on-call workers who were on duty in September 2020; The bonus will be paid out in November 2020.

Apprentices and dual students will receive

- 50 euros more from 1 January 2021 and
- another 40 euros more from 1 January 2022.

The term of this agreement is 28 months (until 31 December 2022).

What else?

- Dismissals for operational reasons are excluded until 31 December 2023
- Outsourcing is excluded for another year - until 31 December 2021
- Partial retirement is extended.

Your warning strikes have had a tremendous effect. You have shown solidarity, you have been supportive and committed. Your participation in the warning strikes sent a clear signal to the employer. It was crucial in getting things moving in the negotiations. Many thanks for that!

It was ver.di members only who have made this possible. Still not a member? That can easily be changed! Ask your ver.di company group for support!
